1. Background

- 1.1. The Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code 2016 (“the Code” or “IBCode”) envisions a strong insolvency resolution ecosystem with a paradigm shift from a debtor in possession regime to a creditor in control scenario. The Insolvency Professional (“IP”), appointed as Interim Resolution Professional (“IRP”) or Resolution Professional (“RP”) of the Corporate Debtor (“CD”), is considered as an administrator functioning as a court appointed officer to facilitate decision making of the Committee of Creditors (“CoC”) constituted under the code.
- 1.2. As per established norms and judicial precedents, the commercial wisdom of CoC is supreme and hence the decision-making domain of the CoC is extremely crucial and critical for effective conduct of the Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process (“CIRP”) and for value maximization of stakeholders. In such a scenario, the Code envisages the conduct of meetings of the CoC to enable orderly execution of the collective resolution process of a Corporate Debtor for accomplishment of the objectives intended by the Code.
- 1.3. The IP is cast with the right and responsibility to chair the CoC meetings of the CD and hence the effective and efficient conduct of the meetings of CoC and drafting of notice, agenda and minutes is a critical and essential role to be performed by the IRP/RP. The objective of this Handbook is to enable and assist the IP in performing this task

2. Objective

- 2.1. The key objectives that are sought to be accomplished through this Handbook are to guide the IPs in certain key aspects relating to the following
 - Issuance of Notices
 - Drafting and Issuance of Agenda documents
 - Conduct of the CoC meeting
